

Sami Alnasser, MD

Biography

Dr. Alnasser completed his Internal Medicine at McMaster University followed by Cardiology and Interventional training at the University of Toronto. Dr. Alnasser led the Structural program in Northern Ontario before joining St Michael's Hospital in 2020. His research areas of interest include valvular and congenital heart interventions. Recently published the largest analysis assessing long term outcomes following transcatheter atrial septal defect closure in collaboration with ICES.