

Tao Wang, MD

Biography

Dr. Tao Wang graduated from University of Toronto with degrees in Engineering Science and Medicine in 1992 and joined St. Michael's Hospital as a resident in Family Medicine and have not left the Department of Community and Family Medicine ever since. He has also participated as staff physician of the Cardiac Rehabilitation Program at St. Michael Hospital from the program's initiation in the mid 1990s. Due to his work with the St. Michael's Cardiac Rehab program, Dr. Wang was recruited to participate in the brand new Cardiac Wellness and Rehabilitation Program at Trillium Health Partners in 2001, and eventually served as the Program's physician lead.